In consideration of Simon Fraser University ("SFU") making my thesis/dissertation, project or extended essay[s], and associated abstract and supplemental files, if applicable (collectively, the "Works") available to interested persons, I, hereby grant to SFU, for the full term of copyright protection, a non-exclusive, royalty free license to:

Alexandra Pulwiczki

- (a) electronically, in print or in any other format, archive, preserve, produce, reproduce, publish and communicate the Works to the public, for non-commercial purposes.

I acknowledge that based on the license granted by me to SFU in paragraph (a) above, SFU will include a digital copy of the Works in SFU's publicly accessible Research Repository, commonly referred to as "Summit".

SFU may grant to Library and Archives Canada a sub-license to do any of the acts referred to in paragraph (a) above and, specifically, to make the Works available to the public, electronically, in print or in any other format, via the Library and Archives Canada Theses Canada database.

I represent and warrant that:

- (i) the Works is my original work, does not infringe any rights of others, including privacy rights, and that I have the right to make the grant conferred by this non-exclusive license; and
- (ii) if third party copyright protected material was included in the Works for which, under the terms of the Copyright Act, written permission from the copyright owners is required, I have obtained such permission from the copyright owners to do the acts mentioned in paragraph (a) above for the full term of copyright protection.

I understand and acknowledge that copying, publication, or public performance of the Works for commercial purposes will not be allowed without my written consent. I will retain copyright ownership and moral rights in the Works and may deal with the Works, and the related copyright, in any way consistent with the rights granted by me to SFU under this non-exclusive license (including the right to change the Works for subsequent purposes, edit and publish the Works in whole or in part, and license the Works to other parties as I may desire).

I promise to inform any person to whom I may grant an interest in or to the Works of the rights granted by me to SFU under this non-exclusive license.
